Because the August issue (No. 3) is a special issue, which was set for reproduction in book form, its pagination begins anew with page one, thus repeating page numbers in issue 1 and part of issue 2. Issue 4 picks up the sequential page numbers in continuation of the usual pattern of consecutive pagination throughout an entire volume as though the numbers had not been interrupted by the change in issue 3. This index carries the issue number on all items in which the page numbers are duplicated, thus (No. 1), (No. 2) or (No. 3) appears before the page number in appropriate places.*
